

Annie Schmidt

July 18, 1929 - January 23, 2024

Annie Schmidt, daughter of Bradley and Katie Seabrook, was born July 18, 1929, in Savannah, Georgia. Her mother and father, brothers, sister, and husband preceded her in death. Annie accepted Christ at an early age.

She received her early education in Chatham County Public Schools in Savannah, Georgia. She attended Paine College, Augusta, Georgia. She graduated from Sonoma State University with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and Master's in Psychology. Annie was married to Leon W. Schmidt, Sr. for 50 years. To this union were born four children, Leon Jr., Annette, Patricia, and Christine.

Annie worked for the Veterans Administration for 27 years in different positions and helped many veterans before retiring in 1997.

She was a member of Kyles Temple African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Vallejo, CA for over 50 years. She was a Life Member of the Women's Home and Overseas Missionary Society, member of the Kyles Temple Health Ministry, served as Kyles Temple's first representative for Seniors Advancing God's Excellence (S.A.G.E.), member of the Gems and Jewels of Kyles Temple, and member of the 50 Plus Club. During the summers she volunteered with the School Lunch Program at Kyles Temple.

She leaves to mourn her children, Leon Jr. (Josie), Annette, Patricia, Christine, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, brother Bradley Seabrook, nieces, and a host of cousins, and friends.
