“ Hello I’m Robin Bell,
I’m a friend of a really beautiful and wonderful woman who enriched my life i her name is Barbara Ann Enron 🥰 I had the privilege of meeting her about a year before she passed just by chance in Michaels. She was looking very baffled and overwhelmed at some Jewelry making supplies. And for whatever reason I decided to start a conversation with her, I went over to her and started talking to her and asked her if she needed help finding something ,we ended up talking and I offered to make the necklace that she wanted for a beautiful bejeweled cross pendant from her husband. She didn’t have a proper necklace for it I offered to make it for her as I was just starting my jewelry business and I was planning on doing it for free. But she must’ve known I really needed that money and she insisted on paying for it. What a blessing it was. I just truly enjoyed her conversation & energy and knew that she was a very special soul. She didn’t know me from Joe blow on the street did n’t know where I lived and she didn’t know if I was going to keep that pendant. I guess she saw my soul too cause I made her something so special it touched her deeply. From that day on we became dear friends. I started doing some healing work with her and making her more and more beautiful jewelry. I’m a retired nurse of 30 years and offered my assistance to her in anyway I could for nothing, it was an honor to help her. just because I wanted to look out for her I can’t explain it. So just like that she became my soul sister she would come over and get her hair done by my daughter. I would give her healing treatments and body massages when her body was aching from her illness and in return she gave me a deep love and was there for me in a time in my life that was not so pretty. She didn’t judge me she just was there for me, came through when many others Should have, but didn’t. She enriched my life in so many ways, with het spunk, generosity of heart and spirit. I’m so sad that I missed your service BARbara Ann,I wish I had gotten closer to your family so I would have know that you were close to going home so I could have been there. J my Barbara Ann loved,$!!’m m I mean loved and beamed with pride for her FAMILY. She adored you all, im sure you all know that she talked and bragged on you all , all the time. And if you didn't know that now you do. 🌸 I feel like she was my chosen sister. I told her she was my soul sister. After that, that's what we called each other on all of our long texts with one another when we're catching up and filling each other in on what was happening in our lives. I will miss those texts I will miss those sweet times i spent with her I will miss her funny bright energy. Barbara Ann, I know you're home now that doesn't mean that I won't miss you dearly. I'm sorry you couldn't make it to your birthday. This white girllll feels so blessed to have had you in my our lives and for all your support. Love Robin & Laila Bell - Socarraś
