“ I am what I am because of ate Belen. She sent me to nursing school and I'm so glad I was able to take care of her specially on her last night here on earth. Ate Belen has been my Pilgrim buddy as we visited Our Lady of Guadalupe, The Holy Land, Rome, Fatima on it's Centennial year of celebration, Lourdes, Sagrada Familia, Our Lady of Montserrat, Churches of St. Francis & St Claire, Garabandal, and many more. I believe that her great faith in God & the Blessed Virgin Mary have given her hope & strength that she was able to fulfill the role of a father & mother to her eleven siblings. Ate Belen I don't know how to thank you for all the sacrifices you have done for the family but I know you felt how much you are loved and forever will be in our hearts. WE LOVE YOU ATE BELEN.
