“ Many fond memories of him while we were in boot camp at Fort Dix NJ in 1978. We were bunk mates and Bernie always worked hard and pleasurable to be with. May he rest in peace. I just found my journal and was looking to reach out and say hi as I haven't spoke or seen him since then. I feel his spirit must have wanted to let me know he at peace. God bless all his family.

“ Hello Manang Evelyn!

It is with much sadness that we heard of the passing of Lenny! Growing up in Bacarra, where you spent part of your childhood with our family, I did not get to bum around with Lenny. But I could imagine him when I see our brother Nestor, who was born 3 days after Lenny! And they had a grand time growing up together in Vallejo as schoolmates! And as comrades who served the USA with valor.

My memory is bad, but I think your eldest EJ, and Lenny, were both born in Bacarra, with your uncle Pons, our father, as the doctor.

As we pray for Lenny's heavenly rest, we pray for your health and strength! God bless you abundantly!
