“ Shared many political activities with Dennis. He was one of the kindest persons I new. We shared some time on the GVRD board until he retired therefrom. Dennis was a Vallejo treasure loved by many. So sorry he had to go.

“ Our dear friend, Dennis, was a rarity for sure. He accomplished more in his life than most could possibly squeeze into a lifetime. I've known Dennis for at least 60 of his 80 years. Way back to Paisano Pizza. Before he was old enough to buy a beer, he was already way ahead of most. A life well lived. We will surely miss him but never stop admiring the guy he was. Hugs to his Tanya & his Kimberlee❤️

“ Bike rides on Mare Island were a sanity saver for me during the pandemic. I particularly remember the one that Dennis joined us on and gave us an amazing history lesson along the way. It was fascinating learning what all those abandoned buildings were used for.
