“ I was very sorry to learn of Emil's passing. I was his platoon leader when we were both scouts in E Troop, Second Squadron, 2nd Armored Cavalry in Germany. I first met "Spidey", as his fellow soldiers nicknamed him, when he was a new trooper patrolling the East-West German border. Later we fought together during the Gulf War where he served with distinction as a scout. I will always remember Emil well for his positive outlook, infectious smile and ready to contribute to any mission assigned to us. He was an excellent soldier and well-liked by all. Years later, it was always fun seeing him at our 2nd Cavalry reunions and catching up on life since the Army.

Emil- see you again at Fiddlers' Green. Toujours Pret, my friend.
