

Francisco Mario Ayala

December 19, 1925 - June 1, 2024

Francisco Mario Ayala

Beloved Son, Brother, Uncle, Husband, Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather, and Great Great Grandfather. Francisco was born in El Salvador on December 19th, 1925 in the city of San Miguel. He had a career path in auto mechanic and he was an activist fighting for the labor rights for the people in his city. He later moved to San Francisco to be able to give his family a better life. He then retired in San Francisco, the city he loved so much after working so hard to provide for his family. Once he retired he then turned his dedication to helping raise his Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren. Francisco loved listening to music. Los Trios was his favorite band, and classical music was his favorite type of music to listen to. He loved gardening - especially his rose bushes. On his downtime he would turn his attention to solving word search puzzles. He believed it would help him continue to keep his memory. He is survived by his wife, Julia Ayala along with his 7 children, 22 Grand Children, 34 Great Grandchildren, and 2 Great Great Grandchildren.
