

Glenda M. Padilla

May 17, 1954 - March 18, 2023

On May 17, 1954 Glenda May Padilla was born in San Francisco, CA. She is the oldest child of Virginia Herrera and Archie Powell. She was raised with her siblings Alfonso, Patricia, Luther, Josephine, Orlando, Christopher and her favorite cousin whom was like a sister to her Judy she also has a multitude of brothers and sisters on her fathers side. She attended Benjamin Franklin Middle school and Galileo High School then attended college at UCSF. She then began a family of her own where she cared for and raised 7 children Monica, Randy, Francisco, Virginia, Yvette, Daniela and Elizabeth.

Due to Glenda's passion for people she found herself in the medical field and then transitioned into special education where she eventually retired from Vallejo United School District even during her retirement she continued to be an active mother and grandmother to her 8 grandchildren Randy JR., Raydyn, Ryand, Lamayah, Sareyah, Tristan, Amaya, and Earl III. She was known for her infectious smile, sense of humor, her love for oldies music and how she loved sharing family stories and memories.

Even though our mother raised a tight knit family she loved our immediate and extended family very much.

On March 18th, 2023 after she fought a good fight she succumbed to cancer while being surrounded by loved ones. She is proceeded in death by her grandmother Josephine, her mother Virginia, her father Archie, her baby sister Josephine, her oldest daughter Monica, her aunts Patricia and Mable.
