“ He was an excellent neighbor and friend. He watched out for our neighborhood. If we left our garage door was open for too long he texted us to let us know. If there was trouble in our neighborhood, he was there for all of us in our neighborhood. He took care of our dog when we needed it . He was a Grand Knight and person. We miss him.
Mildred and Joseph McDermott.
PS One time Cleo and his little dog were outside. The dog went down the street a bit to come running back with a Coyote on her heels. A little dog jumped right through open car door window. Cleo beat coyote off with a broom or a golf club. Both of them were in a kind of a state of shock.
