James "Jimmy" Conrad Brown
May 7, 1967 – July 14, 2025

James "Jimmy" Conrad Brown, a lifelong resident of Vallejo, California, passed away peacefully on July 14, 2025, at the age of 58.

Born on May 7, 1967, Jimmy entered the world with a light that never dimmed. From the beginning, his joyful heart, warm smile, and boundless curiosity made him a gift to everyone who knew him. He was the beloved son of Elizabeth Brown and the late James Brown, and the cherished brother of Blaise Pike, Beth Witham (Bobby), and Patty Rojas (Eddie).

Though Jimmy was born with Prader-Willi Syndrome, it never defined who he was. He lived with courage, humor, and an openness to life that inspired those around him. With a heart full of love and a mind drawn to all things mechanical, Jimmy was endlessly fascinated by how things worked, especially cars, which he adored. His conversations were lively, his observations sharp, and his laughter contagious.

Jimmy never missed a family gathering, and when he entered a room, joy came with him. He was a welcome and treasured presence at every celebration, always with a smile, and a laugh. But above all, he offered love.

Perhaps nowhere was his impact more deeply felt than in the hearts of his nieces and nephews, Eddie, Sam, Michael, Bella, Olivia, and Ava. To them, he was more than an uncle; he was a constant source of light, fun, and unconditional affection. Their lives were made brighter by his presence, and his influence will remain with them always.

Jimmy's life was marked by the extraordinary devotion of his mother, Elizabeth, whose love, care, and strength allowed him to live a full and joyful life. Their bond was unbreakable and beautiful, a testament to the power of family and the purest kind of love.

He leaves behind a wide circle of extended family and friends, all of whom will carry his memory in their hearts.

A funeral service honoring Jimmy's life will be held on Thursday, August 7th at 11:00 AM at Hillcrest Baptist Church, 800 Lighthouse Dr, Vallejo. A reception will follow.

Jimmy Brown's legacy is in the many hearts he touched. He will be missed beyond words, and remembered with smiles, stories, and deep affection, for as long as we live, he lives within us.
