“ It took me almost a 2 weeks to come here. JB. You've been my friend since we were 14 and 16 years old. From Summer Jams to Independence HS. Almost 30 years of calling you a good friend. I'm so sorry you had to leave and I didn't get to say good bye, but I hoped you knew your place in my heart friend. You are in a much better place and finally at peace my friend. Your loved ones now have gained a new angel. Watch over and keep us all safe especially Cam & lil sis. Give my love to moms and pops for me. I love you all.

“ I just wish you were still here kuzzo! No one had the charisma and the motivation you showed to others to keep goin' like you man. I will never forget the crazy ish we had no business getting into from the Standard suit 4 free of the All star weekend you st8 mouth pieced us into and countless stories no one would believe unless the were there!! Your charismatic smile and funny laugh that would light up a room will surely be missed cousin...Never anotha like you kuzzo 100... RIP

“ JB you will be missed! You were like a brother to me in my early 20's. From DeAnza days, SF clubs to coming to party in Hollywood when I moved down to West Hollywood. Jen you and I shared all the same interests from music, basketball, Bay Area sports, old school cars and fashion. You were always there when I needed you. RIP my friend.
