You did not leave this world alone. I know this because a piece of my soul went with you. I'm sure I'm not the only one. I don't know what I'll miss most; your blue eyed smile, your laugh and your ability to shrug off almost anything, your warm tight hugs, your surprise appearances, your great stories about your latest capers. I'll miss them all and so much more. Right now the pain of your loss seems to be the only constant I know. That piece of my soul is yours to keep. Mercedes Joe, Mechanic Joe, Big Joe, Joe Joe. Joe with all the hair, Motorcycle Joe.... I will love and remember you always as My Joe.
