"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Many Uncles and Aunties.

Kris was a good son. He was a respectful, responsible son that we trusted with important matters. He played very little video games and prefer to read, and get lost in those worlds.

He was a good big brother to his younger brother. They enjoyed hanging out late reading and discussing thereafter. He mainly enjoy reading Manga (Japanese stories) stories and novels. His younger brother Ryan and him would discuss those stories all night, laughing. He also enjoyed hanging out with his older brother Kyle reading the same stories, and being his Player Two in all games. He enjoyed talking about writing and talking about stories with his Sister, Sherrilyn. He enjoyed hanging out with his brothers and sister. He is sweet to my wife who helped her cooked daily. He helped his mother with writing and corrected her grammar. He was quite an intellect, and myself, as his father, enjoyed discussing political controversial issues. He was a guarded person, but one that we all loved. He kept things for himself and didn't ask for anything, though we all wish he did. We will remember him because he left a large void in our life. He was a good son, good younger brother, good big brother. The family will greatly missed his presence. The house is quieter without your singing. We love you so much Kris.

Due to Covid, there will be no public viewing. The church services will be immediate family members only.

“ If I had to describe my son, so many words come to mind: he is very kind, sweet, gentle, humble, down to earth, but most of all- - - a heart so kind, one of a kind! I thank him for his friendship and loving thoughts he had shared with me. Through the years, he was always there for me. He hears me out when I need to talk, hanging in there with me even though not doing anything. Even with my darkest days, he helped me pick up the pieces and he is always there for me no matter what. He always give me strength to carry on and always offer his hand, offer his advice, his support and he is my walking dictionary!

I will surely miss his kisses and hugs, his calls, checking to see how I am doing. I will miss his voice, those special trips going to the supermarket and other stores. I will surely miss him when we go back to the church to do volunteering and will miss his cooking and definitely will miss him making fun and sending me silly text jokes.

Today I know that he will find comfort in the truth that God is preparing a place where he will be forever be safe and secure. There will be no more storms, fear and pain. - - only a perfect place - - - peace.

When the Lord calls our loved ones home, He leaves a gift of memories in exchange. Memories are the legacy of love. He may not be here for me, but his love will always remain in my heart. 💕💕
