“ I loved Marie! Joe too! I was always welcome in their home. Fidela was my friend in school and I was at her home frequently. Marie was always welcoming and kind. She easily and naturally shared what she had with anyone. I learned about kindness and forgiveness from her and the family. There was not material things to give, but there was love, compassion, and understanding. A great place to learn about being human and giving to your fellow man.

Marie was fun and laughed a lot. There was fabulous food and my love of Guamanian food has not ended! Parties were fun and the food flowed!

Rest in heaven, Marie. You got this.

My love to the family. Miss you all!
