

Ralph Eisenbise

April 16, 1950 - June 2, 2023

Ralph Freeman Eisenbise (aka “Big Luke”) was born on April 16, 1950, in Montana to Gertrude Nelson and Fred Eisenbise. He passed peacefully on Friday, June 2, 2023, surrounded by his family who never left his side during the final days of the short illness that took him too soon. He was a successful, small business owner that operated his family plumbing business, Rooterman Plumbing, in Vallejo for more than 40 years. His wife Margaret (“Maggie”) DeOcampo Eisenbise preceded him in death 17 years ago and, since her passing, he said often that he couldn’t wait to be with her again. He was also preceded in death by his parents and sister, Melody Eisenbise. He leaves behind his daughter - Melissa, son - Siskana (“Non”), daughter-in-law - Alisa, grandsons - Wulu and Siskana (“Nonny”), granddaughters - Avani and Umuca, god-daughter - Alisia (“Polee”) Tiburcio, and countless other family and friends.

“ Ralph such a nice and caring man would always pick up his grandbaby from daycare with the biggest smile. He would always have something positive to say to me and he would talk about how much he loved his family. He will truly be missed my love goes out to his entire family. love Mrs. Debbie
