

Rizalino Ganson

August 14, 1936 - April 23, 2023

Rizalino Santos Ganson passed away on April 23, 2023 in Vallejo, California.

Riz was born in a small town of Patalan, Panique in the Philippines in 1936. He came from a family of nine. He spent his formative years in his hometown and his collegiate years as an Agricultural major in Economics in Central Luzon University. His first job after graduating was a land reform representative in the Bureau of Land Reform and then as a sugar content analyst for Cojuangco owned Hacienda Luisita. His first real estate venture was selling the Aquino owned subdivision in Capas.

In 1971, Riz was granted a professional visa initially heading out to Missouri. The prospect of snow made him fortuitously change his plans and went to San Francisco instead. Riz had strong work ethics and drive to succeed. Starting out as a hospital worker, he studied to get his real estate license and worked his way to becoming a successful real estate broker finally retiring in 2002

Riz loved to travel and see the world, he greatly enjoyed long road trips and was a passionate golfer. He loved spending time with his two dogs. But mostly, he loved his wife Cecilia.
