“ my condolences to the entire family. Robben was the love of my life. We shared every day for the last year together, loving laughing, and making beautiful memories. I miss him every moment of the day he was my best friend and the man I was going to share the rest of my life with, you till we meet again baby my heart always belongs to you. This just seems like a bad dream to me that I can't wake up from you were my light my happiness you surpassed times 10 everything I ever wanted in a man you were romantic understanding and treated me like a queen you are, and will forever be my king. I love you Robben.

I still miss you today just as much as I did the day you left to go up to heaven and be my angel forever. I think about you every moment of the day, sweetheart I will always belong to you. I love you, baby.

“ We may have only talked over the phone once as adults but my lasting and most fondest memory of Robben was during a sleepover. I think I was 7 or 8, maybe 9. We were both in bed, all of a sudden I heard this grumble or maybe it was a roar. I looked over and it was Robben knocked out, snoring. I never heard anything like that before in my life. Least to say I didn't get any sleep that night but he woke up happy and refreshed the following day. And that was our last sleepover. Goodbye cousin. You will be forever missed!
