“ In loving memory of my colleague and dear friend Robert Fournier:

It is with a heavy heart that I reflect on the sudden loss of Robert Fournier on 08/15/2023. Robert was more than just a colleague; He was my mentor, friend and inspiration. His impact on my current role has been immeasurable.

From the moment I started working with Robert in the same team, and as my reviewer, he exuded charisma and warmth. His infectious sense of humor can brighten even the busiest and toughest of days, and his ability to make any situation seem effortless is truly amazing and his guidance and advice were invaluable. Whenever I needed work guidance or an opinion, he was always there to help with his immense work knowledge and experience. Our conversations never ended just at work, we would go on to talk about everything and laughed before we would back to work again.

On the fateful morning, an impromptu meeting was called and requesting everyone in the team to attend. I noticed Robert was not in the meeting but I assumed it is probably because it was still early in the South Coast for him to join the impromptu meeting. However, that wasn't the case, the meeting was about Robert Fournier. SAD.

What set Robert apart was his genuine belief in my abilities. The constant encouragement and praise for my work motivated me to strive to do my best. Our conversations were not purely professional; They were full of laughter, stories, and relationship that went beyond the confines of our office. We became more than colleagues; We became friends.

As I go through this difficult week, I am reminded of the emptiness without him. Not only the loss of a colleague, but the absence of a friend who believed in me. Robert's legacy will live on forever in the memories we shared, the wisdom he shared and the positive energy he brought to every interaction.

Settle down, dear Robert. Your memories will be missed. May you rest in eternal peace, and may your voice and humor echo in our minds, reminding us to go about life as comfortably and joyfully as you do.

Rest well, my friend
