Shirley Nadine (LaMar) Lewis

February 29, 1940 to July 9, 2022

Shirley Lewis was a true first born! She was determined, hardworking, and a “getter done” type of woman, and she was always all in and full speed ahead! She accomplished what she put her mind to including her career at Chicago Title where she served for many years, having only a high school diploma. She continually pursued the art of “singing” however this is one she was not able to achieve. If you knew her at all you understand this quite well. She loved to tell stories and spin tales of fiction to her sisters, children and grand children. She was blessed with travel adventures many in the states in the RV with “Papa” and some even with the grandkids, she also had the opportunity to travel abroad. One thing that brought great joy and pride to her was the accomplishments of her grandchildren and great grandchildren, she loved to tell everyone she knew of their accomplishments; military careers, marriages, children being born, earning of degrees, business ventures, accomplishments in the work force, accomplishments in school, sports, missions trips, travel adventures, and the list goes on and on. She is preceded in death by her parents; Earlene (Hayes) LaMar and Walter LaMar; her loving husband, Wayne Douglas Lewis known as Papa or Papa Louie; her younger sisters, Sharon Borichevsky, and Patricia Cordova. She is succeeded by her younger sister, Phyllis LaMar and her nephew Kurt Borichevsky; and her three daughters and their families - Janet and Jerry McKinnon, Lynda (Bogan) Lewis, and Karen Kingsland; her grandchildren; Jayme McKinnon and Rick Spadaro; Jeremy and Brittany McKinnon; Kyle Bogan; Kara Kingsland; Kayla and Brandon Cottey; Karissa and Tyler Presley; Kassi Kingsland; and her great grandchildren, Gabriel Navaro; Giana Spadaro; Honor Cottey; and Valor Cottey. She lived her life fully, and now, as we used to sing, she is "Over in the Glory Land". In Loving Memory; daughter, sister, wife, mom, grandma, great grandma and friend.

Please note in lieu of flowers please make a donation to the charity of your choice.
